PAHRUMP RALLY

We want to thank everyone who attended our rally.

Wednesday was rainy and cool but we did get to enjoy everyone at the wine dinner.

Thursday was supposed to be Death Valley day but we were blessed with more rain and cool weather. After thirteen of us squeezed into our coach for a breakfast of ham, sausage, scrambled eggs, fruit and cinnamon rolls some of us visited Walmart (yippee) then met up in the clubhouse for a few rounds of hand and foot. Dave and Judy enjoyed a visit to the museum in town and found it quite informative. Will have to check it out next time in Pahrump. Dinner was enjoyable at the Winery. Sure didn't hear any complaints.

Friday we woke up to blue skies and fair weather. After breakfast of biscuit and gravy casserole with the usual fruits, bagels and of course sweets we caravanned to the China date ranch. The drive in was a total surprise as it wound through the canyon and opened up to an oasis. After enjoying date shakes and shopping in the gift shop the owner gave us a tour of his date palms. Finally found out why they wrap or bag the dates ( to protect them from birds and bad weather) This date farm grows about 15 different varieties of dates Well worth the drive. Dinner was heavy hors d' oeuvres at host coach. Sure have some good cooks in our group.

Saturday was another day of blue skies so after breakfast of omelette in a bag we caravanned to Furnace Creek then on to Bad Water and a drive on Artist Drive to see Artist Pallet. It was as pretty as I remembered it from 15 years ago.

Taco dinner was prepared by host and desert was a seven layered dip cake. After dinner we fought the Saran Wrap ball to get the prizes hidden inside of it. We all walked away with something and Pam got the grand prize of a $20.00 Starbucks gift card.

Thank you Kay (Mary Ann's sister) for joining us.
