Emerald Desert

Our rally at Emerald Desert began on Thursday October 29th, even though some of us arrived on Wednesday. Our first evening together was a great dinner of cornpone soup made by Joanie Parent, and it was really good. We also had salad and corn bread. We had pie for dessert but were too full for it so we had cookies.

We were on our own for Friday until the late afternoon when we met by the pool for Margaritas, beer, wine and chips, that was provided by the park. Then we all met for a Bar-B-Q at the clubhouse. Roger did a great job of Bar-B-Qing hot dogs, Chile, hamburgers and all the fixings. What a feast.

Joanie and her sister Pat and her friend Jan were the only ones that brought costumes and were they ever cute.

Saturday morning we had mimosas and an assortment of goodies by the pool, provided by the park. I posted a picture on Facebook, it was beautiful.

Some of us left after for College of the Desert to shop. After shopping some of us went to the Cabot Museum, what a place! One man built an incredible home or pueblo as they referred to it. It was really something to see. We all met back at the clubhouse for our steak barbeque. Again Roger did a great job of cooking the steaks. Maureen and Howard did a great job with all the fixings that went with the dinners and the desserts. Sharon and Roger were so helpful too. Ed and I did some clean up but these other guys did most of the work. After dinner Ed handled the bingo game and a good time was had by all.

Sunday morning was a fantastic Green Chile Casserole breakfast that Maureen made and it was wonderful, along with the fruit and sweet rolls. The rest of the day was on our own until we met for dinner at Las Cuelas Nuevas Mexican restaurant.
