

Coaster Chatter

Chula Vista Rally

The Chula Vista Rally started early for Committee members, Sharon & Roger Rendall, Don & Maureen Rendall, Tim & Joy Gilles, Jill & Mike Carle, and Maureen & Howard Jones. They arrived on Wednesday, June 4th to get things set up and ready for the arrival of the California Coasters.

Thursday, after everyone had arrived and settled in, there was a Meet and Greet at the Clubhouse. After the Meet and Greet everyone walked over to the Galley at the Marina for an all you can eat Fish and Chips dinner. The food was so good and their tummies were so full but they still felt like a beautiful evening walk along the waterfront.

Chula Vista Rally (con't)

Friday morning after breakfast everyone left to go sightseeing to various places like the Coronado Hotel, the San Diego Zoo, Little Italy, or to take a Harbor Cruise. Dinner consisted of pizza, salad and dessert, followed by a rousing game of Bingo.

Written by Maureen Jones & edited by Kathy Esposto

Saturday was another fun filled day of sightseeing in San Diego on your own. Dinner that evening was hot dogs and hamburgers, baked beans, potato salad and of course dessert. Most of the Coasters spent time watching the Triple Crown Belmont Stakes Race or the Stanley Cup finals on TV.

Sunday found most of the Coasters out and about, touring San Diego and Mission Bay. It was tacos and burritos for dinner followed by a wonderful dessert and you guessed it, Bingo

Monday found the Coasters saying their good byes and packing up for the trip home. Happy trails were wished to all until the Coasters meet again.
