Presidents Message...

Well another month has flown by my fellow NOMADS.

I don't have much to talk about since I am unable to join the group in all the fun RALLIES, like the one you just had in BORREGO SPRINGS. I was told that TOM & PAM did a great job and everyone had a good time, especially in JULIAN , where many a pie was eaten or bought.

If anyone wants to know I am getting better but I just learned from the " DOC" that it could take up to a YEAR to recover from the STROKE I had, so I'll be patient and be a good boy.

I hope everyone is going to the XMAS PA,RTY in LAUGHIN, I sure am planning on it, GOD WILLING.

Be safe, GOD BLESS YOU ALL ,

your PREZ DON

BORREGO SPRINGS RALLY

November 2018

The Spring at Borrego RV Resort 12-16 November 2018

A lot of fun was had by all at the November Borrego Springs, CA Rally 12-16 November 2018.

Day 1 (Monday) started out with a fall feast dinner for all the weary travelers.

Day 2 (Tuesday) we all gathered for a continental breakfast at Pam and Tom's trailer.

Later we all gathered up again for a trip around Borrego's desert metal art and a visit to the Borrego State Park Visitors Center.

After a busy morning and afternoon and a few naps, everyone gathered again for dinner at the Red Ocotillo Restaurant.

Day 3 (Wednesday) brought us together again for a continental breakfast at Pam and Tom's trailer.

Later we gathered for a drive to Julian for a little shopping, late lunch and of course pie!!! I think a few pies came home as well.

Day 4 (Thursday) started out with a continental breakfast, then a free day for all.

There was some golfing and some BIG MONEY changed hands.

Evening brought everyone together for a yummy potluck, and a fun Crazy Dice gift exchange. Lots of laughs for sure.

Day 5 (Friday) everybody started packing up, continental breakfast then one by one everybody hit the road.

We spend a lot of time in the Borrego Springs area, and it was fun sharing the sights and sounds of Borrego Springs with our Colorado River Ramblers family.

Thanks to all for coming!!

Editor Note:

Thank You For a Great rally
